Dear LYNNE:

This letter confirms the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we provide. We have prepared your fiscal 2023 federal and state, if applicable, income tax returns from information which you furnished us. We did not audit or otherwise verify the data you submitted. It is your responsibility to provide all information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, cancelled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We rendered such accounting or bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns. We use professional judgement in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we resolved such questions, if any, in your favor whenever possible. The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

Enclosed for your review:

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The mission of Encompass Ministries is to help people get on their feet, equipped with the tools to get on their feet and off government and social service assistances. We want them to succeed in life and become great community citizens and role models for their children and even grandchildren. This has become harder and harder for families during the recent inflationary years.

Founded in 1998 as a food pantry, the ministry name was Papa's Pantry. Through the early years of taking food to people's homes, we realized that taking food to people was the easy part. There were very real underlying circumstances to WHY people could not afford to feed their families. Mostly, it was that people needed jobs. We also discovered a great need to teach people how to manage money once they did have an income. Stability training began then in living rooms and kitchen tables. We saw, firsthand, that these strategies worked, and people no longer needed help from food pantries or social services.

Years later, in our 25th year of service, with thousands of families (if not a million) in our "rear view mirror." Many of those who have come through our doors have become like family. That's what happens when you walk side by side with someone going through a crisis. This is why we exist.
